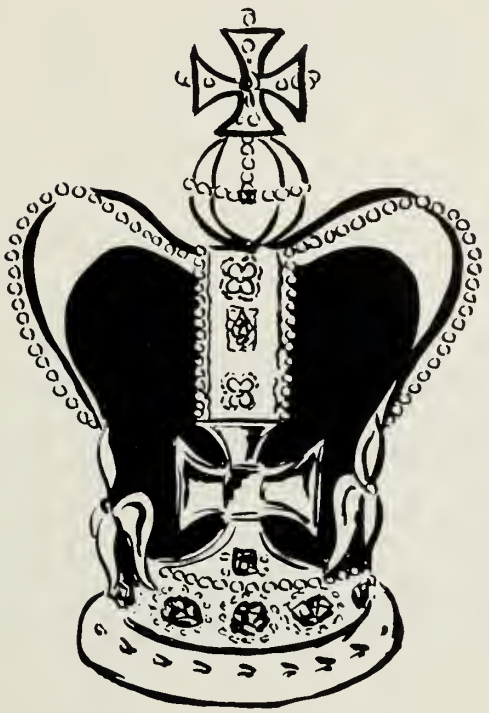
DEDICATION



The Ipswich High School class of 1964 humbly dedicates its yearbook to the people of Ipswich in appreciation of their many and prolonged efforts to continue to provide for a high standard in education for the youth of the town.

We hope this act and instrument of dedication will be worthy vehicles in expressing our sincere gratitude to the citizens of our community.

CLASS HISTORY

Sarah Sherman

We began our high school career in 1960 with the usual enthusiasm experienced by freshmen. Our Junior High School principal, Mr. Rogers, liked us so much (!) that he became the new senior high principal. The first class elections were soon held. The results showed Robin Carter, president; Bob Graffum, vice-president; Surrey Sherman, secretary; and Jim Grimes, treasurer. Those elected to the Student Council were Judy Frant, Ted Frydrych, Ned Cooke, John Graves, and Robin Carter.

Cheerleading tryouts were a high spot of the year for the girls. Bonnie Campbell and Pat Whynock were chosen as regulars, with Patti Girard and Diane Jodoin as their substitutes. Our spectular frosh football team, made up of twenty-four hearty freshmen, was cheered on by the Junior Varsity cheerleaders headed by Jody Franklin and Cindy Snow.

French class a favorite to many. How can we forget Miss MacDonald and the wonderful going-away party we had for her?

The Class of '64 held its first dance in Treadwell Auditorium on St. Patrick's Day. Painting shamrocks turned out to be more fun than work, although there was more paint on us than on the decorations.

Much too quickly, an extremely successful year came to a close.

We bounced back to school in the fall of 1961 as sophomores. The class was led this year by president Robin Carter, vice-president Cindy Snow, secretary Donna Mackey, and treasurer Jim Grimes. Donna Mackey, Cindy Snow, Sandy Lezon, Chuck Norton, and Robin Carter represented us in the Student Council.

The cold weather approached and hockey was offered as a school sport for the first time. Many of our boys became members of the team and could be seen practicing long hours on the Ipswich River.

In January, thirteen Chilean students came to visit Ipswich for a month. Their short stay contributed much to our interest and knowledge. Native Chilean dances, led by Antonio Lazana, were performed for the entire school body.

Spring came quickly and with it Crane's Beach Picnic, Class Day, and the final assembly where Mr. Rogers once again bade us adieu for the summer.

Pleasantly refreshed, we resumed the role of upper classmen in the fall of 1962. Our officers were Robin Carter, president; Surrey Sherman, vice-president; Donna Mackey, secretary; and Jim Grimes, treasurer. Lynda Whitney, Cindy Barrows, Ronnie Hopping, Chuck Norton, and Robin Carter represented us in the Student Council that year.

The long-awaited class rings, received in October, proved to be one of the most important events in the year.

An exuberant class spirit was exhibited when certain students painted "Class of '64" on the water tower, — at their own expense.

There was really quite a chase when the girls were set upon the boys preceding the Student Council-sponsored Sadie Hawkins dance. Coach Burke taught us to square dance, and we proved to be real "hill-billies."

The 1963 basketball team has gone down in Ipswich High School history by reaching the Cape Ann League championship play-offs. As inspired team won the first two games, only to be defeated by one point in the third game.

Spring brought many other exciting experiences to us as juniors. The most memorable was the Junior Prom, under the direction of chairman Ned Cooke. Manuel's Black and White orchestra supplied heavenly music for our dancing. The theme "Mood Indigo" was beautifully expressed in the decorations done by Donna Mackey and her committee.

The class was extremely proud of George Medding and Wes Winters for their speedy completion of the 50-mile hike done in co-operation with President Kennedy's physical fitness program.

Also in the spring, Robin Carter and Jim Grimes were delegates to Boys' State.

At the final assembly we proudly marched in as Seniors — sentimental over the final day at the old Ipswich High School. Leaving the school behind, we recalled old memories and looked forward to the new experiences in the new school.

We began our final year at the new high school on High Street. With the new school came a new rule — shirts, ties, and jackets to be worn by the boys. Mr. McKenzie's unique ties certainly came in handy for the reluctant Beau Brummels.

The class officers, Robin Carter, Surrey Sherman, Donna Mackey, and Jim Grimes were re-elected. Representatives to the Student Council were Lynda Whitney, Janet Gerry, Barry Wile, Ron Hopping, and Robin Carter.

We were very happy to see that Madeline Sanchez-Ma had joined us from Costa Rica. She soon became involved in the fast-moving pace of life in the United States. Rita Balboni rejoined the class, and Brian Connolly, Pat Douglas, and Ray Mansell were welcome additions also.

Soon after we were settled, a Steering Committee was elected consisting of Robin Carter, Donna Mackey, Jim Grimes, Surrey Sherman, Diane Jodoin, Lynda Whitney, Barry Wile, Janet Gerry, Ned Cooke, Dave Sklarz, Bonnie Campbell, and Lee Jewett.

Football co-captains Ned Cooke and Bob Wile spirited their team on to win the first four games of the season. Noise-makers and cheers helped to make the first rally an overwhelming success. At the close of the football season, the Hoffman Award was presented to Ned Cooke; Jim Grimes received a "most valuable player" trophy from radio station WNBP; and George Tougas was elected the "most popular" football player.

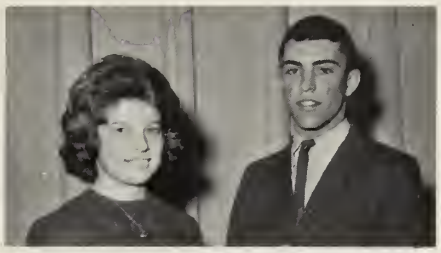
The Christmas party, with Santa Bob Wile, and the Christmas Cotillion brought 1963 to a close.

We greeted 1964, our final six months of high school, with a winning basketball team, led by co-captains Ned Cooke and Bob Dudek.

We are eagerly looking forward to the Senior Reception, Class Day, and Graduation, hoping that our years at I.H.S. will help to provide all of our classmates with happy and successful futures.

In closing, we would like to thank all those who have contributed to make the last four years profitable and happy, and wish the future classes at I.H.S. a wonderful school career.

CLASS PROPHECY



Robin Carter and Janet Gerry

Time: 1872
Place: Olymic Games, Ipswich, Massachusetts

It is a crisp, winter day in the bustling, upcoming metropolis of Ipswich. Deep under the stands of the town's new multi-million dollar Roundy Stadium, Janet Gerry has just met Robin Carter in front of the Zippy Smith Popcorn Stand.

Jan: Why, Robin! Fancy meeting you here! Say, I've just been at the arena where I saw a few of our former I.H.S. classmates.

Robin: As a matter of fact I was on my way there when I met Dave Sklarz, the gold-medal winner of the Olympic Foul-Shooting contest. He told me that I should drop by to see George Tougas in section K-9. George is clearing out the large strips of rubber left by Jim Courage and Chris Gianakos. Tell me, whom did you see while you were down there?

Jan: Well, Pam Matous was leading in the decathalon events while Sandra Lezon was winning her second gold medal in the shot-put.

Robin: I heard that Sandra Chamberlain and Geri Cummings are real hotshots on the women's basketball team, too.

Jan: Yes, they're doing quite well under their new coach Bob Dudek and trainer Brian Connolly. I understand that Jim Grimes and Ted Frydrych are top scorers of the men's hoop squad.

Robin: and Bruce Cutler, Donna Knowlton, and Ellen Greenberg took away the silver medal in a novel event — the snowball-throwing contest. They were beaten out by the team of Tom Hall, Sharon Grant, and Denis Trudel.

Jan: I noticed that Ned Cooke in the hammer-throw, Pete Lampropoulos in the discus, Alan Ray in the high jump, and Harry Sheppard is really sharp in the javelin event and Bob Wile get right up there in the pole vault.

Robin: Skiing is still big business in Ipswich. Surrey Sherman is now director of her own ski school with Topper Terrio and Carrie Tedford her faithful customers. Sue Wade is competing in the 80-meter jump and Patsy Whynock is the star of the cross-country team.

Jan: Suzanne Dempsey and John Graves are proprietors of the Arlberg Lodge just down the street. Wanda Suroweicz and Pat Koziol are in charge of entertainment and Natalie Jewett is the gracious hostess of this truly exciting ski lodge.

Robin: You know many of our friends from I.H.S. are playing professional sports. Ray Pierce excels for the Bruins; Howie Naugle is catching for twenty-game winner Wes Winters on the Ipswich Clammers team; Dave Beckingham with his caddy Bonnie Campbell leaves for the U.S. Open at Candlewood Country Club this spring.

Jan: Ron Hopping and Pete Hoffman are the NEW passing combination for the New York Giants. Coach Burke's gym classes turned out a couple of pro's too: Chuck Noyes in wrestling and Ron Beauregard in deep-knee bending.

Robin: Not everyone from our class participates in sports, though. Bill Barney drives the players' bus to the stadium from Harry Howarth's Marguery Hotel.

Jan: Yes, I had lunch there and enjoyed seeing Pam Baldwin who makes a charming hostess. Charlie Surpitski is in charge of the kitchen and chef Pete Sheppard. I can't understand, though, why Lynda Whitney spends most of her time washing dishes there.

Robin: Pat Stone and Evelyn Hudon are efficient waitresses and John Depaola's parking cars. That reminds me Cynthia Faulconer is parking cars at Toby McGregor's King's Rook.

Jan: Oh, yes, I understand that George Medding's Stuck-Truck Towing Company has received the call quite a few times to rescue floating automobiles from the Ipswich River as a result of Cynthia's slow brake work.

Robin: Mary Jaslowich, Linda Moon, and Joyce Klinger are the new folk-singing trio at the Rook now.

Jan: That's the site of this year's world chess championship. It's Dirk Visser versus Charlie Norton in the finals. Bob Ostrega is official kibitzer. For refreshments Toby Nichols prepares the Danish pastry and Chris Conley mixes a pretty wild granatina.

Robin: Walking through town I noticed that Jack Carter, Dickie Lensky, and Jim Sotiropoulos are co-owners of Quint's corner where loitering is now legal. Across the street Dianne Jodoin and Betsy Lewis have their own beauty salon; Jane Rathe is their most regular customer.

Jan: Larry Tremblay is the new manager of the Strand Theater and Marcia Scibicz is chief popcorn-popper. Raymond Manselle rips the tickets sold by Rita Balboni. Judy Grant and Patty Girard make most popular usherettes. Karl Bronk and James Cole are the bouncers. Linda Tillson has a special service cleaning the rugs in the balcony.

Robin: The 5&7 is under the management of John Waz; Donna Brown does a most complimentary job as his most private secretary. Becca and Judy have a new enterprise: the K&G Lanes now stand for Krakowski and Galusha. I enjoy an occasional pool game with Mike Sullivan at Dan Nikas' Pool Hall, too.

Jan: Barry Wile and Bob Graffum, due to their vast experience, have opened a babysitting agency next to Hazel Atkinson's laundromat. Still in Ipswich is Father Buddy Bernard who is pastor of the French church where Barbara Benjamin is Mother Superior of the convent.

Robin: A modern dance studio was opened last year by Cindy Barrows, with aid from Anne Tullercash and Susan Bowman, her assistants. The three of them really got the younger generation on its toes.

Jan: Jim Beaupre has moved up in the world: he began a new foodstore chain called the Last International. Meg Sanchez, our exchange student from Costa Rica, is his foreign representative.

Robin: Joni Dziadul took over for her cousin Suzanne as Jim's secretary when Sue went into partnership with Carole Ciolek who started a hardware store across the street.

Jan: I was at Crane's Beach last summer and I noticed that Susan Grant runs her own Seafood Stand-by-the-Seashore. Lois DeMario and Pat Reynolds keep Susan in business.

Robin: I was told that head lifeguard Larry Drown swallowed so much salt water while saving Joe Monko that Kelly Britton had to rescue them both. Carole Feener has a monoply on the concessions at the beach. Mary Caverly has one, too. But if she does not pass GO she does not collect $200.

Jan: Bob Price owns Parking Place; poor Bob Gustavson fell off the Boardwalk and broke his leg.

Robin: Lee Jewett and Donna Mackey's Ambulance Service rushing in to take him to the hospital where Dr. Kathy MackKay and her assistant nurse Jim Poirier performed the operation — on the wrong leg. Luckily Patsy LeClair finally stepped in to set things straight.

Jan: I saw Donnie Parker and Dickie Rogers last week. They're working for the town; presently they're painting the water tower at Great Neck. Police Chief Art Rousseau is supervising the job.

Robin: I think Ipswich's government has finally been stabilized; Cynthia Snow proves to be a very competent executive secretary and a school committee which seats Nancy Stout, Susan Edwards and Pat Comeau is seeing to it that the youngsters of the town receive a good education.

Jan: Well, Robin, it's been great talking to you and I wish we could say more, but I had better get back to Jeannie Burridge's Motel. I'm dining with Judy Waitonis tonight and I'd like to freshen up a bit.

Robin: I didn't realize that it was getting so late. It's almost time for Jim Lavoie to carry the Olympic torch in and I'd like to see him again. It certainly has been interesting chatting with you and I hope we can get together again soon. Good bye, Jan!

GIFTS TO THE BOYS

Ann Coulouras — Bonnie Campbell

We entered the new I.H.S. last September and started a year of "things to remember:"
Class Day loomed ahead as each day passed,
And for our boys we searched for gifts that would last.
One day, behind a crate in the school,
We found gifts that are really "cool."

WILLIAM BARNEY
Night clubs interest Bill,
He hopes to own one some day,
To him goes money and good will,
To start him on his way.

CHRIS CONLEY
Chris is a scientist we agree,
In radiology he knows his stuff;
These radio tubes are free —
In case he doesn't have enough.

DANNY NIKAS
For Danny, who's little car is blue
We hope he'll really like these
Seat belts to hold fast like glue,
In case you ever hit any trees!

CHARLES NOYES
To Charlie who's hair is very red,
We're sure he'll like this dye;
If he gets tired of the color on his head,
He can say to it "bye-bye."

ROBERT OSTREGA
Very hard at the diner works Bob,
And dishes he must do,
This lotion he can use on the job,
And apply to his hands when He's through.

DONALD PARKER
Don, is tall and handsome
And deserves the title he received,
We gave him this mirror and comb,
To maintain what he has achieved.

RAYMOND PIERCE
Many lawns have been mowed by Ray,
He does a very good job, too;
This mower will shorten his day,
So he can sit and admire the view.

JAMES POIRIER
A wonderful boy is Jim,
So a gift wasn't hard to find;
We'd like to give a book to him,
To add to knowledge already in his mind.

ROBERT PRICE
For Bob Price who is always on the go,
And likes to drive around and around,
This car is noisy so
We'll know where he'll be found.

ARTHUR ROUSSEAU
Art is a hot-rod fan,
And usually has only a dime;
So if he's ever stopped by a policeman,
This money will pay his fine.

HARRY SHEPPARD
Harry knows all about food,
Which he's had much experience preparing;
This cook book will put him in a mood,
To make dishes fit for a King.

PETER SHEPPARD
Pete works after school,
Unlike some who play pool,
A cash register we have for him,
To put his hard-earned money in.

DAVID SKLARZ
David wears his hair quite short,
Visits the barber shop a lot,
This waffle stick goes to him
It will make him look slick.

MICHEAL SULLIVAN
A policmen Mike wants to be;
This badge he'll surely like,
So he can act with authority,
If someone takes his motor bike.

JAMES SOTIROPOULOS
"Set" plays football for IHS,
And, we know, does his best;
We give a trophy, nice and small,
To remind him of us all.

JAMES TERRIO
"Topper" has a favorite sport,
Doesn't deal with field or court;
Everyone knows he loves to ski,
This wax goes to him from me.

GEORGE TOUGAS
George works for his father,
So hot-topping is his work;
We know he should work harder,
We have a roller so he won't shirk.

LAWRENCE TREMBLAY
"Lorry" is full of tricks,
Pulls them off just for kicks;
We have for him this little toy,
A thank you for his cheer and joy.

DIRK VISSER
Dirk's future looks very bright;
But if it gets dark one day,
He'll have this little light,
To brighten up his way.

JOHN WAZ
John is our class lover;
Will keep you close to her,
This gift of twine,
A neat package you will find.

JOHN DEPAOLA
John has cars, we cannot deny,
Red, green, and other shades too;
So to him goes this bottle of dye,
In case he wants to color some blue.

LARRY DROWN
Title of "Class Baby," Larry did receive,
So his gift was not hard to find;
A rattle he can play with, we believe —
When his homework gets behind.

ROBERT DUDEK
An easy gift to get for "Dude"
Co-captain of our basketball team,
A score card with his points reviewed —
No wonder cheerleaders scream!

TED FRYDRYCH
An asset to the B-ball team,
Ted's shots were hard to beat
This basketball shows what we mean,
By extolling all his feats.

ROBERT GRAFFUM
Of the Teen Club Graf was head
An active president was he,
We have for him this little bed
So he can now, sleep peacefully.

A. J. GRIMES
We have these term piggy banks,
For James treasurer of our class,
Loaded with all our thanks
And best wishes for success.

PETER HOFFMAN
Pete's girlfriends are many we know,
Upon him this gift we bestow,
A little date book to keep
Their names so neat in penmanship.

HARRY HOWARTH
Harry likes to play the piano,
We know he can certainly use this;
Music for his welcome solo.
With this pop tune, he'll never miss!

PETER LAMPROPOULOS
To "Petie" who knows all about the clam,
To him a digger we give;
When he goes out in his pram,
His catch will be productive.

JAMES LAVOIE
When Jim drives around in his car,
He gives us all rides as he goes;
This can of oil should take him far,
With our appreciation, he knows.

RICHARD LENSKY
Dick always tells joke to us,
So this we're sure he can use;
With this book of jokes he need not fuss,
There are so many from which to choose.

TOBY McGREGOR
A beatnik Toby really is,
So this cool gift He'll dig;
These little bongos are all his,
To complete his casual rig.

GEORGE MEDDING
To George who likes to dream a lot,
We're sure he'll appreciate
A sleeping mask we just bought;
Now he'll dream both early and late.

LUIS MERRY
Lou played football well this year,
Defensively he was hard to get around;
To him we give this special cheer,
Which on the edge in gold is bound.

JOSEPH MONKO
From New Hampshire, Joe comes each day,
His friendship is easy to win;
To make sure he'll return this way,
A year's free gas we have for him.

HOWARD NAUGLE
Howie is a very good sport,
Who takes much kidding from the boys,
In this book he'll find a retort,
To check their boisterous noise.

TOBY NICHOLS
To Toby who loves the sand and sea,
We wanted to give something to float;
It didn't take long for us to see,
The best thing would be a boat!

CHARLES NORTON
Charlie is a very smart boy,
So we're sure this will suit him well!
A book he'll like more than a toy,
From it, wonderful takes he can tell.

JAMES BEAUPRE
Jim works in the Finast store
Checking out groceries very fast;
For him we've a sign for his door
When he is "Manager" at last!

RONALD BEAUREGARD
Ron fiddles with radios and such,
A very good ham operator is he,
He calls people up so very much
He'll use this telephone directory.

DAVID BECKINGHAM
To Dave who golfs all the time,
We give this little rhyme:
A golf ball from the Class of '64
Will help win games forever more.

JACK CARTER
Jack's had trouble with his knee,
Any many accidents we know;
"Fold-up" crutches you can see,
Will keep him on the go.

ROBIN CARTER
To Robin, this gavel we present,
For his four years as president;
His work well done, we all know,
To the greatest height he will go.

EDWARD COOKE
To Ned, co-captain of our team,
During a most successful year —
We give a football, which means
Thanks — to a leader without fear.

JAMES COURAGE
To Jim, who loves to cook,
We give this chef's cookbook.
It will serve him well,
Before he rings the dinner bell.

BRUCE CUTLER
One who likes work at the A&P
Is Bruce Cutler, we all agree —
We give to him this grocery store,
So he can manage forever more.

CHRISTOPHER GIANAKIS
Because he travels with speed
Chris will always need
A transmission for his car
Without it, he won't go far.

ROBERT GUSTAVSON
Bob's gift was hard to find,
Yet we found it just in time;
Shoe suspenders, alas
His shoes will be on in class.

THOMAS HALL
To Tom who loves to comb his hair
We give to him a bottle of Nair;
Just in case that he decides,
He wants to be on the bald side.

RONALD HOPPING
Ronnie is on the corridor patrol
This gift will help him to control
A little red sign that he often needs
To cut down underclassmen's speeds.

ALAN RAY
Alan can draw in many ways:
To him much credit is Due;
On this card is written the Phrase;
"For Tiger pages, we thank you."....

RICHARD ROGERS
Dick is graduating without honors;
That's no reason to cut the corners;
Here's a scholarship to B.C.,
So you can be close to Joanie.

CHARLES SURPITSKI
Charlie, who is our best-dressed,
We will venture a slight guess;
He may need a pair of these —
To slip on with considerable ease.

DENNIS TRUDEL
To Dennis Trudel, who we feel,
Doesn't quite meet the wheel;
We have a pillow upon which to sit
To see the road just a tiny bit.

WESLEY WINTERS
Wes plays on the basketball team,
So we cooked up this little scheme:
A good luck charm for him,
A "wittle wabbit" — to help his the rim.

ELMER BERNARD
To Bud who likes to bet a lot,
We give this good-luck charm;
Whether the team is good or not,
He'll not suffer financial harm.

JAMES COLE
Sports cars interest Jim,
But since he cannot afford one,
We would like to give him
A Sting-Ray for lots of fun.

JAMES BEAUPRE
Jim works in the Finast Store
Checking out groceries very fast;
For him we've a sign for the door
When he is Manager at last.

BRIAN CONNOLLY
Brian wears glasses, we know,
But one thing we fear;
They may get lost — and so
An extra pair is here.

Our job is finished. As we close the door
We'd like to say to the men of 1964,
"Of all the experiences that were most fun,
The boys in our class rate number one."

GIFTS TO THE GIRLS

While walking through the woods one day,
We came upon some animals at play.

One little squirrel fell upon
A box quite large in size

Curious we opened it
And much to our surprise
We found the gifts for the senior girls
Right before our eyes.

H. Naugle — R. Rogers

RITA BALBONI
To Rita whose career will be talking
In a special way all her own,
To keep her from too much walking
We give her this traveling phone.

KELLY BRITTON
Kelly's name rhymes with kitten,
'Twas hard to find something fittin'
We hope this pair of cuties
Will serve for several duties.

CYNTHIA BARROWS
One day as we were digging,
We found beneath the dirt
An old forgotten copy
Of the "Little Town Flirt."

ELEANOR BILODEAU
To a lovely maiden
Who is personality laden
We give this large hoe
To rake in her choice of beau.

SUSAN BOWMAN
To Sue whom we all admire
Because of her modish attire
Here is a rather large pin
Among the girls it will cause a din.

BARBARA BENJAMIN
To Barbie who seems so quiet
As she walks through the halls each day
We give her this tiny megaphone
So we'll hear what she has to say.

JEAN BURRIDGE
To a little girl
With a lot of courage
We have this gun
For Jeannie Burridge.

CAROL CIOLEK
Carol always talks a lot
But never seems to care;
For her some ribbons we bought
To wear in her blonde hair.

PAT COMEAU
Pat usually wears a frown
And is most quiet and shy;
For her the happy face of a clown
Will not hide her pretty eyes.

MARY CAVERLY
For peppy Mary Caverly
Who waits on tables somedays
We have a pretty blue sponge
To clean up messy sundaes.

ANN COULOURAS
To Ann with the serious air
And tremendous versatility
We give this Teddy Bear
From Brown University.

BONNIE CAMPBELL
To tall blonde Bonnie Campbell
Whose talents we know well
We give this folk music song
Hoping she'll entertain us long.

LOIS DEMARIO
Lois is usually bright and gay
And should prosper in her career
Here's a map to show her the way
After a successful senior year.

SUSANNE DEMPSEY
Susanne is a high school rage,
Her laughter is merry and gay
This book with jokes, page on page
Will brighten up her future way.

JONI DZIADUL & SUZANNE DZIADUL
Joni & Suzanne are relations
Part of the Dziadul delegation
This gift will take you separate ways
With wishes for many pleasant days.

CYNTHIA FAULCONER
The trip from Cindy's house to town
Is enough to drag anyone down
We hope that this bike
Will shorten her hike.

CAROLE FEENER
For Carole whom few of us really know
And who to dances seldom goes —
We hope this year-round pass
Will carry memories of a loving class.

JUDY CALUSHA
Judy worries that she's too fat
And tries to eat like a little cat
To help her stay very slim
We have a box of candy Trim.

JUDY GRANT
Judy Grant is quite pretty
She'll need this pair of colored glasses
When traveling from city to city
To be "incog" among the masses.

JANET GERRY
Cute little Janet
Is short and stocky
This pogo stick
Will remind her of "Hoppy."

ELLEN GREENBERG
For Ellen whose hair is piled high
And black as the shadow of night
Some shampoo we just had to buy
To keep her tresses shiny and bright.

SHARON GRANT
Sharon is as short as a kilt
And fun up to the hilt
These stilts we know she'll take in fun
We hope her life will be a joyous one.

SUSAN GRANT
Susan never says, "I can't" —
We admire her determination
We hope this bright new hammer
Will give her drive and inspiration.

PATTY GIRARD
Patty's always on the go
Her "pkp" and "vim" never run low
We have for her this sporty car
So that she may travel near and far.

GERI CUMMINGS
Miss Cummings we know as Geri,
An animal lover too,
With this dog she can be merry
And win blue ribbons too.

EVELYN HUDON
The boys in the class all know
Evelyn's skirts are much too low;
We think this one is just the thing
To make the boys sit up and sing.

LEE JEWETT
To Lee who rates anyone's glance,
For she's a pretty slick chick,
We give this '62 remembrance
Of her friend Dick.

NATALIE JEWETT
Natalie lives near the Rowley line
Getting up for school's a difficult time
For her we have a cheerful alarm
Waking up won't do any harm.

MARY JASLOWICH
To Mary who is not sad a bit
And quiet as any wallflower
We hope this make-up kit
Will make her the girl of the hour.

DIANNE JODOIN
At slim cute Diane we look
And think she is really frail,
We have for her this book
To help her catch a male.

JOYCE KLINGER
Joycie is always singing
And spreading good cheer
To her a microphone we're bringing
So all around can hear.

DONNA KNOWLTON
This little girl likes to dance
To any music she'll take a stance
We have shoes to make her happy
And keep her figure trim and snappy.

PAT KOZIOL
Pat is usually behind the wheel
Of her father's Oldsmobile
We hope this car will take her far
At least to her shining star.

BETSY LEWIS
Betsy we see driving her car,
And know she often travels afar
This coupon for gas she will like
So that she'll never have to hike.

SANDRA LEZON
Sandra is a girl who likes to play
Basketball and baseball everyday
To her we give a key to the gym
Whenever she wants, she can get in.

PAT LECLAIR
To Pat, a maiden fair.
With an athletic flair
We give this hockey puck
And wish Pat lots of luck.

KATHY MacKAY
To a little girl slender and frail
Who posssesses an excellent cranium
This boat will help set sail
To do good work with the Panamanians.

DONNA MACKEY
Donna's a girl of many charms
And always bright and gay
With the lads she has a way
Here's a bell for her wedding day.

WANDA SUROWIEC
Good-natured Wanda is quiet and shy
This she cheerfully tells
She'll like these tinkling bells
To ring when passing by.

LINDA MOON
To Linda who is so very quiet
We give this trumpet to start a riot
So we'll know when she's around
She can blow a real cool sound.

SURREY SHERMAN
To Surrey who night after night
Would plan a party in the pale moon light
This large dance hall is just the thing
Where all her friends can dance and swing.

CYNTHIA SNOW
At Cindy we all poke fun
This gift will make us run
We hope she doesn't get serious
With this instrument so precarious.

PAT STONE
For a young lady very well known,
To be remembered now and ever after
We have these jokes for Miss Pat Stone
Will bring her life much laughter.

NANCY STOUT
Nancy is a quiet girl
Who's hardly ever seen
So we give this riot gun
We hope she doesn't scream.

LINDA TILSON
Linda drives all about town
And from city to city
This sign will slow her down
And on pedestrians to have some pity.

JUDY WAITONIS
For Judy who is quite tall
And very well known to all
We have this little gift
Her spirits it should lift.

LINDA WHITNEY
There is no girl finer
Than this I.H.S. scholar
So this gift of a bright half-dollar
Will buy more coffee at the diner.

PAM BALDWIN
Pam's a shy girl with lots of poise,
Who very rarely makes any noise;
We give her this pretty rattle,
On her whereabouts it will tattle.

SANDRA CHAMBERLAIN
Tall and willowy Sandra
Towers overall
We have for her this heart
To say she's loved by all.

PAT WHYNOCK
A cheerleader of renown
Gets this megaphone
We hope she'll lead more cheers
Throughout her college years.

MARCIA SCIBICZ
To Marcia whom we think is grand
Her personality is gay and light
This charm will grace her hand
To bring her goals in sight.

JANE RATHE
To Jane whose hair has lots of care
So much that it rises high
We hope this hat will hold it down
And keep it from blowing around.

SUSAN WADE
For Susan tall and stately
A mermaid by the river,
This gift we caught lately
And couldn't wait to give her.

CAROLYN TEDFORD
For pretty Carolyn Tedford
A girl we all enjoy,
This gift we could hardly afford
Will catch the eye of every boy.

ANN TULLERCASH
Ann's a girl, we all can see,
Whose future will be a smash
We give this V for Victory
To ambitious Ann Tullercash.

DONNA BROWN
Donna's future is in Art
She'll enjoy this little cart
Full of paints which she can use
For works of Art, but not abuse.

And now that all the girls are pleased,
at the wonderful gifts that they received,
we leave with these few words and say, we hope they'll cherish their class days.

MADELINE

SANCHEZ-MA

For Meg who's come by A.F.S.,
We hope she enjoyed her stay,
Is a ticket for the Ipswich Express
To speed her return some day.

In August, 1963, Meg came to Ipswich from Costa Rica through the efforts of the Ipswich Chapter of the American Field Service. Her journey to North America as an exchange student showed, in part, the friendliness of the relations between this country and her neighbors to the south. However, more important to us, it rewarded the students of Ipswich High School for their work in collecting sufficient money to participate in this worthwhile exchange program. Meg's sojourn in Ipswich, like those of our two previous exchange students from Germany and Turkey, was in effect the fruit of the efforts of both students and townspeople.

Born in Macau, China, Madeline started kindergarten there, according to the Chinese custom, at age three. "They do very much math in China," she says. Consequently, when her family moved to Costa Rica, Meg got through the first two grades in one year. "There," she explained, "students go directly from elementary school into high school."

Meg won her scholarship to the United States when she finished school in November of 1962. School vacation lasted until March. It was then that she attended the University of Costa Rica for one term. "It is difficult to enter the University," says Meg, "as all must take examinations. Out of all aspirants, only 1400 are accepted. However, once accepted these scholars have few finanicial worries. Courses coast but two or three dollars per year; thus, for a student taking five subjects the cost is less than twenty dollars a year."

Today, Meg is as "American" as any Ipswich teenager. From her original shyness has emerged a charming sense of humor and a sharp wit. We hope she will always remember Ipswich and her classmates who fondly wish her happiness in the years to come. Vaya con Dios, Madeline!

FOOTBALL

This year's football team, inspired by the fine instruction of Coach Roundy, was able to compile a commendable record of five wins and three losses. Our class can be especially proud of the team since its members were nearly all seniors.

We wish a successful season for next year's team, fortified by experienced players brought along by Junior Varsity coach R. Burke, and a continuing exhibition of good sportsmanship.

VARSITY TEAM

The 1963-1964 basketball team, under the superb coaching of Mr. Robert McKenna, finished the season with a fine record of 14 wins and 2 losses. This record was one game short of winning the Cape Ann League championship, and one of the best records ever compiled by an I.H.S. team. For a team that was not picked to be a title contender, Ipswich surprised everyone by winning thirteen consecutive games, and again gaining a berth in the Eastern Massachusetts Interscholastic Basketball tournament.

Ipswich emerged victorious, due to a fine team effort, in the first game of the Tech tourney by coming from behind with a 12 point handicap to win. In the second game Ipswich lost to tourney-favorite Provincetown which eventually won the state Class D title.

We sincerely hope that next year's team will enjoy an even better season to bring both championships home to Ipswich.

WRESTLING

The 1963-1964 Wrestling team enjoyed a highly successful season under the direction of Coach Burke who has done much work in promoting the sport at Ipswich High School these past few years. The overall record of nine wins against four losses is proof of the skill of the team members in their competition against formidable opposition.

Ipswich placed second in the Merrimac Valley tournament and seventh in the Massachusetts State Championships which draws the best high school wrestlers in the state.

We are proud that wrestling is becoming increasingly popular at I.H.S.; and we wish next year's team a successful season, and Coach Burke an even greater number of aspirants for instruction in this manly sport.

The Girls' Varsity basketball team had a fairly successful season. Under the aegis of their new coach Mrs. Nancy Prince, a wonderful spirit of comradeship and keen competition was enjoyed among themselves and among their opponents on the basketball court.

The varsity squad, especially those seniors who will be leaving I.H.S. in June, hope the 1964 team will be even more successful in competition, while upholding good sportsmanship as the major goal in its relationship with competing teams.

FIELD HOCKEY

Field Hockey is a new sport at Ipswich High School. It is rapidly becoming a very popular one since in this year, the third since its introduction to the school, there have been two teams enjoying interscholastic competition. With a nucleus of the undergraduate members of the 1963 varsity squad and a very capable junior varsity team ready to move up to varsity status, Mrs. Nancy Prince, the coach, can look forward to a successful season next year.
